

FIGHT OVER WINE MAY DELAY BEER BILL IN SENATE

California Wine Growers Are Kicking Over The Traces

DEMAND WINE PROVISIO

Economy Bill Returned To House Today For Approval

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16.—(INS)—The Cullen bill legalizing 3.2 per cent beer, by weight, was assured prompt passage in the Senate today following a fight over the inclusion of wine and fruit juices.

The bill came before the Senate from the Finance Committee with its provisions broadened to authorize manufacture and sale of 3.2 per cent vinuous drinks.

Kicking over the traces, California wine growers wired Senators Johnson (R) and McAdoo (D) of California requesting that an amendment be sought on the Senate floor legalizing all naturally fermented wines. This would raise the alcoholic wine content permissible under the bill to about 10 per cent.

The wine growers made it plain that 3.2 per cent wine would not meet the needs of their industry. They asked that if the amendment should be lost, the wine provision be stricken from the bill.

In view of this development, several Senators took the view that the Senate probably would strike out the Finance Committee amendments and approve the bill in the form adopted by the House.

Senate wets set April 2 as their goal for the actual distribution of beer in states where its sale is not prohibited by state laws. The bill would legalize the sale of beer 15 days after enactment.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16.—(INS)—The Administration's $500,000,000 emergency economy act, giving President Roosevelt extraordinary power to slash Federal salaries and veterans' benefits, was returned to the House today for final approval of Senate amendments.

The Senate passed the bill last night 62 to 13, after modifying some of the important sections. Administration leaders predicted it would become law this week.

The bill would confer on Mr. Roosevelt the broadest powers ever given a chief executive in peace time. It would repeal all existing veterans' laws and give the President authority to revise pension lists and rewrite the basic pension rates. It specifically repealed all presumptions, heretofore conferred by law, barred widows of World War veterans from pensions, unless the veteran died of service-connected disability, and slashed civil war pensions by 10 per cent.

The President further was empowered to determine the reduction in the cost of living since 1928 and apply a like percentage to slashing salaries of Federal employees. He merely was held to a maximum slash of 15 per cent. The veterans' slashing were expected to save $375,000,000 and the salary cuts $125,000,000 a year.

Under the lash of criticism from both sides of the chamber, the Senate modified a few sections of the bill. Its most important change was to exempt (Continued on Page 4)

Rob Store Room Of Langhorne Welfare

LANGHORNE, Mar. 16.—Langhorne lays claim to the doubtful honor of harboring the meanest man in the world.

Early yesterday thieves broke into the Memorial Home, located on the corner of Maple and Bellevue avenues, forced the lock on the door of the local welfare societies' rooms and stole a large amount of underwear and sweaters which had been collected by the society and the local Philadelphia Red Cross for distribution to the needy of the community.

The theft was discovered by Joseph Zalot, commander of the local American Legion Post, at 8 o'clock. He notified the Morrisville State Police barracks and Trooper Stiles Smith is investigating.

This is the second time within a month that societies' rooms have been entered and looted of merchandise provided for the needy. Four weeks ago many pairs of shoes were stolen. Who got them is still a mystery.

SCHWARTZ BILL GETS NEW LEASE OF LIFE

McClure Will Move For Reconsideration of The Bill

PROPOSE REFERENDUM

By William J. Kelly
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
HARRISBURG, Mar. 16.—(INS)—Apparently killed in a history-making Senate vote Tuesday, the Schwartz Sunday sports bill proposing changes in Pennsylvania's blue laws had a new lease on life today.

Senator John J. McClure, Delaware County, whose negative vote caused a mild sensation, will move for a reconsideration of the bill Monday night. If the reconsideration is granted he will offer amendments. If the changes are incorporated in the measure McClure's vote will be "aye" on the roll call.

The Delaware Senator proposes first and foremost a referendum. In the shape in which the bill was defeated it would legalize sports in communities where licenses were granted locally and the referendum could be held later. Under McClure's plan, Sunday baseball during the approaching summer would be impossible because the people would not have an opportunity to pass upon proposed modification until the November election.

Senate rules provide that the vote on a defeated bill may be reconsidered within five legislative days if two Senators who voted in the negative make the demand. A second to McClure's motion would not be difficult to obtain, it is believed, but that in itself permits only another roll call on the bill and would not necessarily assure its passage. It is senatorial courtesy to permit reconsideration and still allow the man seconding the motion to vote "No" on the second roll (Continued on Page 4)

Father Claims Body Of Perkaskie Woman

The body of Elizabeth Wein, who was murdered in the Ward-Davidson towel factory, Perkaskie, on Monday morning, was claimed by her father, William March, of Philadelphia. After the message was received by the sister, she communicated with Miss Wein's father in Philadelphia who visited Perkaskie. March stated that his daughter had been married twice, her first husband's name being Green. She then married Wein whom it later developed, was married and not divorced. ### GIVES OPINION ON

THE NEW BEER BILL

Representative Henry W. Watson, Bucks County, believes home brewers would not be disturbed, despite the Beer Bill provision that brewers pay $1,000 license fee and a $5 a barrel tax on their product.

Watson, member of the Ways and Means Committee, which handled the bill, said it was understood the license and tax was to apply only to those who made beer for sale.

Fifteen days after President Roosevelt signed the bill, beer containing not more than 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight could be sold in any bar-room, hotel, restaurant, or soda fountain licensed by the State to sell soft drinks, is the opinion of Pennsylvania representatives.

BESIEGE BREWERIES FOR JOBS

Philadelphia, Mar. 16.—Spurred by the impending legislation on beer, thousands of unemployed men besieged Philadelphia breweries today seeking jobs. Many of the breweries put out "no help wanted" signs, while others informed the applicants they would be "called when needed."

A near riot occurred at one brewery when the surging mass of idle men swept into the offices and plant yards. They were dispersed only after the president of the company said "no men are being taken on."

Mrs. Ida Thorne, who has been making an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Thorne, Radcliffe street and Jefferson avenue, left Saturday for Atlantic City, where she will remain over the Easter holidays. ## CONTRACTS WITH TEACHERS HERE TO BE RETAINED

School Board President Says
No Hasty Action Will Be Taken

HAVE PLENTY OF TIME

Legislature Will Have Adjourned Before Notice
Period Expires

"The Bristol school board will not terminate teachers' contracts nor attach the suggested statement of Dr. James N. Rule, state superintendent of public instruction," according to Doron Green, president of the school board.

The question as to what action the Bristol school board would take so as to be able to take advantage of any change which proposed legislation might make in teachers' salaries, was asked of Mr. Green.

Mr. Green replied that it would not be necessary as the Bristol schools are operating on a 10-months' schedule, and the State Legislature will have completed its work, and adjourned, before it will be time to pass upon the teachers' contracts for next year.

"Should any changes be made in the Edmonds Act," said Mr. Green, "or should a temporary reduction of ten per cent in the teachers' salaries and a moratorium on the yearly increments, be declared, provision would undoubtedly be made in the act for the repeal of previous acts, or for an endorsement covering the temporary reductions, to be signed by the teachers and directors and attached to the regular contracts.

"The school board is keeping in close touch with the developments at Harrisburg, and whatever legislation is necessary to protect the interests of the taxpayers, as the situation develops, will be enacted, but it will be done in a legal and lawful manner, so as to preclude the possibility of being penalized by the State.

"As evidence that calmness and wisdom should be exercised in the present emergency, the State Department of Justice, in a recent informal decision, advised that a teacher's credit for experience cannot be cancelled by the mere device of firing her and hiring her over again. Credit for continuity of service under the Edmonds Act cannot be destroyed by any such subterfuge," said Mr. Green. Accordingly the Bristol School Board prefers to proceed calmly and cautiously until definite action is taken upon the revised school code, by the State Legislature.

Dr. Rule had stated that instead of terminating contracts as was being done by some school boards, that an alternative plan was the attachment of a statement showing that the contracts were binding pending the enactment of proposed legislation.

"Frisco Jenny" Stars Ruth Chatterton at The Grand

Ruth Chatterton comes to the Grand Theatre tonight in the First National picture, "Frisco Jenny," in which she has a typical "Diamond Lil" role.

The polished actress turns entirely away from her recent society roles in her latest starring vehicle, and reverts to a character part similar to those in which she made some of her early and most outstanding successes.

In "Frisco Jenny" she appears as the Queen of the Demimonde, who rules her kingdom with an iron hand. "Frisco Jenny" is a stirring and glamorous tale of the old Barbary Coast of San Francisco, with its temples of pleasure, its gilded dives and gambling dens.

The picture, which covers the period of the great earthquake and the years following, is filled with thrills, including the quake itself and the fire that followed, a dramatic court scene in which Miss Chatterton is branded by her own son and orgies in the gay dives.

BRISTOL A. A. TO HAVE STRONGER LINE-UP

The Bristol A. A. basketball five will have a stronger line-up tonight than last week on the Italian Mutual Aid Hall when the team clashed with the Burlington Cardinals, champions of the Burlington City League.

Last week the Jersey team scored a 43-28 triumph over the locals but were extended to win. Only the fact that the Bristolians played without a system the first half of the game saved the Jerseyites from a defeat.

Tonight promises a different tale, as the local boys practiced twice this week and will not be lost when the opening whistle blows to bring them into action against the Burlington Champions.

In the preliminary game the Beverly Road five, runner up to the Cardinals in the Jersey League will play another Bristol A. A. club. Last week this five also scored a victory over the locals who are out after revenge.

The opening tap-off will take place at eight o'clock sharp.

WE HAVE ALWAYS felt that these so-called all-star combinations never click properly when banded together for a game or series of games in any sport regardless of the players' individual ability. . . . this was proven the other night when the pick of the Bristol Basketball League met the Burlington champions in the Mutual Aid Hall. . . . the Jersey boys defeating the locals rather handily in two contests.

The players are not familiar with one another's style. . . . so consequently they lack team work. . . . it is too bad the Y. M. A. champions of the local league could not be induced to meet the series for the Bristol-Burlington title. . . . we feel that the boys from across the river would know they were in a basketball game.

However the local league winners are scheduled to meet one of this year's great college basketball teams in an exhibition game to be played in the Mutual hall before the season closes. . . . the identity of the Y. M. A. opponents is somewhat of a mystery at present. . . . but we understand that this team played in the Eastern Inter-Collegiate League this past season.

Do you know that. . . the relay team of Bristol High in 1928, composed of Lester Stofoff, Howard Evans, Edgar Opyke and John Black, broke the track record in the mile event at 3:42. . . . in the same year Tom Smoyer created a new record in the shot-put. . . . Smoyer tossing the cannon-ball 41 feet 10 inches.

Beer Bill in The Senate

The pensions of all veterans of all wars, disabled in line of duty on active service, from the economy axe of the President, Mr. Roosevelt was prohibited from economizing on this group—the battle-scarred veterans—unless he reduces the basic rate of pensions.

Other liberalizing amendments, adopted, were: by Dill (D) of Washington, exempting Spanish-American War veterans, over 62 years of age, from being taken off the pension rolls, but subjecting them to any slash the President may see fit; by Copeland (D) of New York, giving the President the discretionary power to provide domiciliary care for tubercular and neuro-psychiatric veterans; by Black (D) of Alabama, permitting admission to hospitals of veterans, suffering from non-service connected disabilities, and allowing veterans to file and prosecute in the Federal courts, claims arising under the war risk insurance act.

Schwartz Bill Gets
New Lease of Life

call. The bill failed Tuesday by two votes, the count being 26 to 24.

If the amendments are inserted and McClure furnishes the only change from the original roll call, the vote would be tied at 25 and Lieut. Gov. E. C. Shannon, presiding Senate officer, would have to break the deadlock. The McClure amendments, however, might bring switches by either or both sides. It is speculative therefore, whether the second test would make defeat more decisive, result in a tie, or easily effect passage.

McClure's decision threw a ray of hope into the despairing ranks of the liberals. They immediately set to work on mobilizing forces for another test. They looked to Senator G. Mason Owlett, Toga, as the one to second McClure's move and then line up with him on the affirmative side when the roll is again called.

In response to assailants who threw responsibility for the modifier's defeat into his lap, McClure revealed his stand on the controversial subject.

He never has and never will approve the bill in its present form, he asserted.

His amendments would confine Sabbath sports solely to baseball and football. Whether Senators who insist upon legalization of their Sunday golf will provide another obstacle remains a question.

"I believe the people are entitled to determine for themselves whether they want baseball and football on Sunday," McClure stated. "I have no objection to granting municipalities the right to license such sports if the people express themselves in favor of them."

Under his plan, a double referendum would be held at the November election. A popular state-wide vote would decide whether or not Sunday sports would be legal in Pennsylvania. In addition, the people would vote whether they favored the games in their own localities. The state-wide vote would supersede. If the majority is affirmative, the sports would be legal in those communities which voted for them, and illegal in the communities opposing them. If the state-wide vote was negative, the vote of a single locality would mean nothing.
